Subject: Announcement - EPAM India Hiring 2022 Graduates, Phase 2 Campus Hiring

BCC is intentional to all educational partners

Dear Educational Partners,

Given the increased demand for software engineers for EPAM India, we are pleased inform you that we have increased the intake of Interns/Full Time Employees (Junior Software Engineer and Junior Test Automation Engineers), from 2022 batch. As per this, we are providing another opportunity to students who didn't attempt My anatomy's NCET test or unable to clear NCET test in first attempt or take EPAM online assessment or missed earlier recruitment drive for a variety of reasons.

Students are expected to take My anatomy's NCET as a first step, and the qualified ones to take EPAM round 1 online assessment, which would be scheduled on Sunday, October 31, 2021. Please encourage your students to take part in this recruitment drive. More details can be found in the attached .pdf file, and a summary of hiring process is provided below. For more details My anatomy's NCET test, please reach out to team marked in CC in this email.

Status of students who appeared previous Campus recruitment drive, scheduled in the month of September is available in the enclosed sheet. The process is on-going.

For any questions, feel free to email EPAM Campus hiring team @Shared EPAM-RDIN Hiring and DO NOT Reply to this email, all your email communication can be done with @Shared EPAM-RDIN Hiring email ID.

Dear Students,

Greetings !!! i am sending you the List of students eligible for EPAM(PEP 2021) program from GCET..... all the details regarding this program is communicated to you earlier, i would like to inform again...any queries please ping to my WhatsApp Number(9246163228).....

Dear All,

Hope you are doing good and staying safe.

This is to inform you that assessment for getting selected into PEP program - 2021 will be held on 17th Aug 2020 or 18th Aug 2020. More details will be communicated soon.

For students to get accustomed with the tool we use for assessment, a demo test (it would just be a sample test and no separate pattern) is arranged before you take the final assessment test.
