2. Creative Arts and Culture

Creative arts and culture has a strong relationship with society. Creative arts harness the civic, moral and social responsibilities of an individual. In order to inculcate this sense of responsibility eminent person from the industry was invited to propagate the need for learning creative arts and respecting one's culture. The Members of Fine Arts Club of the college organized many activities cogently which stimulated their aesthetic sense.

4. Mentoring & Universal Human Values

Mentoring provides an opportunity for the students to know themselves and cherish the joy of learning. Sessions on Mentoring and Universal Human Values enables the students to combat the evils in society. They are sensitized to the societal needs, thus germinates the need for innovation. Character building is possible through mentoring and through providing inputs on Universal Human Values.

These modules were taken up by in-house faculty of English, Soft Skills Trainers and faculty on Mathematics. Initial apprehensions and inhibitions that curb students' learning abilities were addressed. These sessions aimed at making the students realize their lacunae and provided adequate tips to overcome their lacunae. Applications and importance of Differentiation in Integration to engineering is explained.

Orientation Classes- Students' Self-assessment

CSE

1. Dr. D. S. R Murthy
Scads of students felt that they comprehended the topic in a very good manner. Majority of them evaluated their participation and relevance of the topic as good.
2. Dr. T. Shiva Prasad
There is a mixed response from the students. Majority of them felt that their comprehension of the topic was good. Few students perceived that they participated in the lecture both at very good and good level. None of the students felt that the topic was irrelevant.
3. Prof. G. Karuna Kumari and Dr. B. Nagamani
Large number of students assessed their comprehension as excellent. There is a mixed response to the questions related to participation and relevance of the topic. While majority of them perceived to participate in fairly good manner, the others felt that they participated in a good manner. Large number of students agreed that the topic was relevant.
4. Dr. Y. Shiva Rama Prasad
There is a mixed response in the students' self-assessment. They rated their comprehension skills as very good and their participation in the lecture as good and relevance of the topic is good.
5. Prof. N. Ravi Shankar
Majority of the students evaluated their comprehension in understanding the lecture as very good and their participatory nature as good and relevance of the topic as good.
6. Ms. P. Mercy Kavitha
Most of the students participated in the session and enjoyed.
7. Mr. V. Madhusudan Rao
Scads of students evaluated their comprehension of the topic is excellent, their participation in the lecture as good and relevance of the topic also as good.
8. Dr. Udaya Kumar Susarla
Large number of students participated in the session and assessed their comprehension skills as excellent and their participation in the lecture is good. They expressed their satisfaction that they learnt something from the session.
9. Dr. A. Uma Devi
Majority of the students understood the importance of the topic in the present learning atmosphere. They rated their comprehension levels as excellent.
10. Prof. G. Karuna Kumar and Dr. B. Nagamani
Large number of students understood the benefits of meditation. Students meditated for few minutes after the session.
11. Prof. K. S. Rao
Sizable number of students appraised that their comprehension of the topic is excellent. Majority felt that it was very good. Moving on to their participation in the lecture and relevance of the topic they rated themselves as good.
12. Mr. Y. V. N. Phani Kishore
Large number of students understood the benefits of innovation and creativity. Students participated in the session actively.
13. Dr. A. Uma Devi
Good number of students rated their understanding as excellent and their participation in the session as good.
14. Mr. N. Chandrakanth
Majority of the students understood the importance of the topic in the present learning atmosphere. They rated their comprehension levels as excellent.
15. Ms. Veenu Jindal
Majority of the students felt that their comprehension is very good and their participation and relevance of the topic as good.

16. Ms. Latha Suhasini

Majority of the students analyzed their understanding of the lecture as good and their participation as good.

17. Dr. Arpitha Velanky
