REPORT ON INCULCATION OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP SKILLS AMONGST YOUTH

Name of the programme: Inculcation of Entrepreneurship Skills Amongst Youth

Resource Person: Prof. Dr. M. Srinivas

M. Pharm., Ph. D,

Department of pharmaceutical chemistry

The seminar on “Inculcation of Entrepreneurship Skills Amongst Youths” conducted by Geethanjali College of Pharmacy, seminar scheduled on 14.03.2018. The location of the event is Geethanjali College of Pharmacy, Seminar Hall.

The main objective of the seminar is to keep informed the students; Skills acquisition and entrepreneurship training for the youths will serve as succor to ameliorate the high rate of unemployment rather than allowing the youths to roam the street and thereby engage in unwholesome practices to earn a living. Entrepreneurship can be described as a vehicle of economic development which affects economic growth through job creation, knowledge spillovers, introduction of new innovations and productivity enhancements. It also provides individuals with adequate training that enables creativity and skill acquisition which encourages self-employment.

Department of Pharmacology

The seminar on "Ethical Guidelines for Biomedical Research on Human Participants" conducted by Geethanjali College of Pharmacy, seminar scheduled on 11.07.2017. The location of the event is Geethanjali College of Pharmacy.

The main objective of the seminar is to keep informed the students; Biomedical Science and Technology and their application in the practice of medicine are provoking some anxiety among the public and society with new ethical problems. Society is expressing its concern about what it fears would be abuses in scientific investigation and biomedical technology. The new advances in science and medicine are a cause for celebration and jubilation, but at the same time, they need careful evaluation of risks against benefits and it raises some delicate and difficult issues of ethics. These need to be dealt with extreme sensitivity of human values with utmost care, and development of ethical guidelines for the clinical research.
