Program schedule of 2 days 11th National Level Pharmacy Virtual Conference “DRAVYAKA-2020” sponsored by Teja Educational Society in association with Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India, Telangana State (Branch), on “Global Burden of the Disease & Pharmacist’s Role” at Geethanjali College of Pharmacy, Cheeryal (V), Keesara (M), Medchal District, T.S.

Teja Educational Society had organized a 11th National Level Pharmacy Virtual Conference on “Global Burden of the Disease & Pharmacist’s Role” 11 and 12 December 2020, at Geethanjali College of Pharmacy, Cheeryal (V), Keesara (M), Medchal District, T.S. It was an honor for the Teja Educational society to organize a national level seminar consecutively from 2010 that provides an opportunity for various colleges students and faculty to project their scientific work and skills on the national level platform in the name of DRAVYAKA conference was found to be beneficial for the students and faculty members to share their research and knowledge and interact with different academicians, industry scientists and regulators across India.

The main objective of the conference is to keep informed the students’ community on the current trends in research and development in the field of pharmaceutical sciences by inviting experts & eminent people in academicians, drug regulators and industry professionals. During these sessions every participant will get an opportunity to enrich with the recent knowledge, inspired to think in research terms and encouraged for innovations. The topic “Global Burden of the Disease & Pharmacist’s Role” is to give more emphasis on rarely occurring diseases for which drug manufacturers are not paying much attention may be due to economic reasons. The need to concentrate much on rare diseases and orphan drugs was clearly projected in this conference.
